

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 9, 1745.

Madrid, December 22.

THE Court was in grand Gala last Friday, on Account of the Name-day of the Princess Asturias, and Yesterday the same Ceremony was observed, on Account of its being the Name-day of the Dauphiness. In the Midst of all this Joy, we are here in a great deal of Confusion; the Disputes of the being greater than ever. M. de Ensenada lately upon an Account of the Expences incurred by the Campaign in Italy, under the Command of the Infante Philip; which amounted to about Fourteen millions, or upwards. The Queen saw it, and after examining a Page or two, pronounced it very exact; in which very plainly shew'd she would have been satisfied if it had been less exact. To say the least, if ever there was War carried on against the Honour of a whole People, we are now engaged in such a one; for, in Council it is opposed, and in common Conversation, universally condemn'd; at the same time it is managed, as it was originally contriv'd, by a Junto. Matters are more and more perplex'd by the Disgrace of M. de las Minas; for Don Ensenada has absolutely refused the Command, except he may be allowed to correspond with the King, and not subject to any Commands, but from directly. If this Demand be not complied with, he is reduced to the hard Necessity of finding M. de Ensenada to take the Command from the Officer, who so soon took it from him.

On January 2. We are excessively embarrassed by the new Revolution, in regard to the Jews, who have long inhabited this City, and been consider'd as the Support of its Trade. There are at least 8000 Jews of that Nation settled here, many of them very rich, and who have demeaned themselves so as to acquire a good Reputation; and in the Kingdom, doubtless, upwards of 30,000. They have applied themselves to the States General of the United Provinces, and to the Powers, to implore their Intercession with her Majesty, in order to obtain the recalling the Edict for their Expulsion. What Effect their Entreaties may produce, is very uncertain; but, in the Time, the World may be glad to see this Edict, which is like to make a good deal of Noise. It runs

MARIA THERESA, &c. As we have taken Resolution, that, for the future, no Jew, on any Account whatsoever, shall reside in our Kingdom of Austria: This, for many important Reasons, we intend will be executed in the following Manner.

No Jews shall remain in our Capital City of Vienna after the last of January 1745; and if they do, shall be driven out by Force.

Inasmuch as they may not be able, within that Time, to dispose of what they cannot remove, or to Affairs with the Creditors, and such as may be due to them, they shall be allowed to remain for the Space of Six Months in the Kingdom; that is to say, to the End of the Month of June, 1745; but without the Liberty of so much as entering Prague, but a License, first had and obtained from the Intendant herein after named; and this License shall be granted but to such among the Jews as have been largely concerned in Trade; and to them under convenient Restrictions, that they may not be able to use such License.

These Six Months being expired, the Jews are to quit immediately, and entirely, our Kingdom of Bohemia; and, in case they shall not do so, they are to be compell'd to leave it by Military Force.

This is not to be understood of the Jews in Vienna only, but generally of all the Jews now established throughout our Kingdom of Bohemia; so that the Close of the Month of June, not a Jew shall remain therein, neither do we permit them to fix themselves in any Part of our Hereditary Dominions.

We confide the Execution of this our Royal Resolution, to Count Philip Kratowski de Kollowrat, of the Members of our Privy Council, and Vice President of our Chamber of Finances in our said Kingdom.

Done at Vienna, December 19, 1744.

Bern, December 12. On the 4th Instant the Great and Little Council of this City were extraordinarily assembled, upon a Letter from the States General to the Canton of Bern in particular, desiring an Additional Number of 2400 Men, in virtue of the Alliance of 1712; and Yesterday the Debate thereon was resumed, and lasted from Eight in the Morning till Three in the Afternoon, when the Augmentation was agreed to.

Extract from a Private Letter, dated Munich, December 31, 1744.

We are greatly at a Loss about Publick Affairs, especially since the Arrival of her Imperial Majesty. Things are of late so much altered at Court, and in the Field, that we know not what to make of them. The French Ministers are all disappeared, except M. de Chavigny, who goes to wait on the Emperor but seldom; and tho' the Austrians are all in Motion round us, our Troops remain quiet and safe in their Quarters. In short, from various Circumstances, and more especially from the abrupt Departure of the Count de Baviere, we begin to hope that Things are either accommodated, or in a fair Way of being accommodated, between this Court and that of Vienna; which would not only be joyful News here, but in every City of Germany.

Extract of a Letter from the Head Quarters of the Cantonment at Neustadt, Dec. 23, N. S.

Our Army having marched from Oppotschna in three Columns, and being come out of Bohemia, after having left a large Body of Troops, and the Saxons in Winter Quarters there; and his Highness the Prince having sent a considerable Reinforcement into the Upper Palatinate, we are at last arrived here in Silesia, in the Neighbourhood of Neiss, which City we have blockaded. Upon our Approach, the Enemy, to the Number of 10 Battalions and 15 Squadrons, have abandoned Troppau and Jgendorf, and it appears, that they will be forced to abandon Ratibor likewise; after which we shall quit our Cantonments, and take Winter Quarters.

Berlin, December 26. His Prussian Majesty returned hither Yesterday from Silesia.

Hague, January 12. We have Advice from Liege, that the French are forming a very large Magazine of all Kinds of Military Stores at Givet, and particularly, that they have laid up no less than 3000 Waggon Loads, of Charcoal under the Cannon of that Fortress, which looks as if they thought of making Use of hot Bullets in some Siege in that Neighbourhood.

English Usquebaugh

THE Importers and Advertisers of IRISH USQUEBAUGH, which they sell at 28 Shillings per Gallon, having been extravagantly lavish in their Commendations of it, and endeavouring to insinuate, with equal Modesty and Truth, that there is something so peculiarly Hibernian in this Composition, that it is impossible to prepare it in any Part of the World so well as at Dublin or Drogheda:

At the Desire of several Gentlemen, who look upon this Peculiarity to consist rather in Price than Excellence, and in order to do Justice to the Produce and Manufacture of our own Country, these Importers and Advertisers are called upon to answer the following Queries:

Whether the Distilling Trade has not been much more improved in England than in Ireland?

Whether is the whole Composition of their Irish Usquebaugh there is a single Ingredient, which is not to be had in as great Plenty, and in full as great a Degree of Perfection, at London, as at their favourite Places Dublin or Drogheda?

And if the above Improvement has been made here in the Distillery, and we have the finest Saffron in the World, besides Plenty and Excellence of every other requisite Ingredient, Why may we not make as fine Usquebaugh as at either of the above-mentioned Places?

While their Answer is preparing, that an Appeal may lie before the Publick, as well as before these interested Gentlemen, a London Distiller, who desires no other Recommendation of his Usquebaugh than what may result from a fair Trial, begs Leave to inform the Nobility and Gentry, that a Warehouse is open'd opposite to Garraway's Coffee-house in Exchange-Alley, where (for Ready Money) is exposed to Sale, a large Parcel of English Usquebaugh, Green and Yellow, at 14 s. per Gallon.

Where also may be had,

Citron Water, not inferior to the Foreign, it being made of the finest Citrons that could be purchased, at the same Price; fine Spirits of Saffron, at 16 s. per Gallon; Coffee Water, Spirits of Cinnamon, Spirits of Clary, Spirits of Tansey, and fine Ratafia, at 10 s. per Gallon; Spirits of Mint, Spirits of Caraway, at 8 s. per Gallon.

Note, Gentlemen, by sending a Message to the above-mentioned Place, may be waited on with Samples at their own Houses.

Angelick Snuff.

THE most Noble COMPOSITION

World, instantly removing all Manner of Disturbance from the Head and Brain, easing the most excruciating Moment; taking away all Swimming or Giddiness, proceeding from Vapours, or any other Cause; all Sleepiness, and all other Lethargick Effects; refreshing the Eyes, wonderfully strengthening them when weak.

It certainly cures Catarrhs or Disfluxions of the Remedies the most grievous Tooth-ach in an instant, excellently beneficial in Apopleckick Fits, and Sicknefs, and assuredly prevents those Difficulties that beset the Brain, comforts the Nerves, and revivifies the Spirits.

Its admirable Efficacy in all the above-mentioned has been experienced above a thousand Times, and justly causes it to be esteem'd the most beneficial in the World, being good for all Sorts of Persons: In all of the above-said Disorders are sudden, and the Remedy noble Angelick Snuff as speedy, no Family ought to be without it, nor ever will when they have once used it.

It is to be had only of the Gentlewoman at the Sign of a Crown over against the Church in Coleman-street near side London, at One Shilling a Paper, with printed Directions at large.

Concerning Gleet and Seminal Weakness of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleet and Seminal Weakness, which is often brought on by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, Strains, Pollutio sui, or any other Cause whereby that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as it is difficult to cure, is as certain, since they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infect the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hectic Fevers, a Tabes Dorsalis, or Corruption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Catarrh, which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such, therefore, who have the Misfortune to be afflicted with Old or Stubborn Gleet, Seminal Effusions, or any other Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any other of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding Urine, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain speedy Cure, which they most assuredly may, by using only a small Quantity of a transcendent Balsamick RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY, now published for a general use after having for many Years been experienced to cure, and fail perfectly curing the most Stubborn Gleet in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; and all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vesicles, Urinary Passages, which almost instantly cure, and restore to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very easy Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent BALSAMICK RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative in all Weaknesses of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly in the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels to an infirmity, inasmuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found; and all Persons fatigued with Gleet or Seminal Weakness, or Sort, or Weaknesses of the Urinary Vessels, who take it in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they are most agreeably surpris'd at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy does directly, will, even after all other Means and Medicines, been tried in vain; too much cannot be said in its Praise. All who ever took it for any of the above-mentioned Disorders have readily declared.

The Price is but 6 s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Cure one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to cure a Cure, worth ten times as much, and by one Pot a special Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. Dyer's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Dunstons Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up, with full Instructions, which whomsoever carefully reads will perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with succeeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malady the Poul Disease is entirely eradicated or not.

Note, Ask only for a 6 s. Pot of Balsamick Electuary.
